

robin & winterberries at a kettlehole bog (P. Albrecht)

Bobolink (US Fish & Wildlife Service)

Northern Ohio Traction & Light Co. trolley on Gorge Bridge (Walt Stoner/ NORM)

Birds and Nature in Northeast Ohio:

A Powerpoint Inspired by the Deep Cover Cleveland book series

Friday 1/9/26, Deep Cover Cleveland author Laura Peskin will present to the Historical Society of Old Brooklyn about birds and nature on some specific area properties. Laura's personal experience informs on birdwatching at as action-packed spots as Danny Greene's White City Dump or the Summit Metroparks Bike & Hike Trail conversion of rails, where trains a century ago reached 100 mph! Then more nature on the edge with a tour of wildflowers, some carnivorous, and a few birds in Portage County's extreme habitats.

St. Jas. Lutheran Church, 4771 Broadview Rd. (at Alvin Av.), 44109
Friday, January 9 at 7:00 p.m.