Students Favor Roosevelt Over Dewey
As Roosevelt goes, so goes the nation.
If there are any political observers or handicappers in the crowd who believe this statement, read the results of the public poll conducted in the school in 1946 and 1947. From 1936 to 1941, by majority margins, they will follow the results of the 1947 poll which shows the president winning again five weeks before election.
In a survey conducted by Scholastic Magazine, an annual feature during a political year, the question was: "Who do you vote for in the election of November 6th? Among the 600, 65 per cent were for President Roosevelt and 34 per cent for Thomas Dewey, the Republican standard-bearer, and 2 per cent who are withholding opinion. Separated into individual grades, the votes are similar except in the eleventh grade which leans slightly toward Dewey. It is interesting to note as to returns, more boys favor Roosevelt than do girls.
The survey was conducted during the last five presidential elections. In 1936 while the President ran for a second term and in 1944, Roosevelt's campaign was the theme of the Democratic platform. In 1940, the Gallup poll credited the nation with the result.
"Don't change horses in midstream" was the slogan of the 1940 campaign. The 1944 campaign seems to be following the same line.

Kick-Off Dance Ushers in Fall Semester for Council
With silhouettes of megaphones in the gym walls, goal posts at the end of the gym, and the dance floor of the cafeteria, the Student Council kicked off the new semester with an all-night dance on October 20.
The dance was billed as the "biggest high school dance ever to hit the area" and it lived up to its billing. A large crowd surrounded the dance floor, giving band director Bud Murray and his band a friendly reception.
Last year the Student Council collected three hundred dollars for sales tax stamps which the student body brought in. This year the committee headed by Richard Sisk and Alfred Chreehills hopes to exceed last year's sum. The proceeds will be made available to the cornerstone fund. "It is the easiest way to raise money and everyone can help by picking up and collecting every tax stamp," Sisk said.
Last Monday housemen representatives collected the stamps for the first time and did so on schedule.
The athletic committee piloted by Don Hubick is hoping to hold an outside rally as soon as arrangements can be completed. The committee also has been discussing the desirability of having sports teams for boys, and other activities for fall activities.
On Tuesday, September 28, the citizens of the town, headed by the President of the Board of Education and the President of the Board of Education, met to consider the question of selling bonds for the improvement of the high school. The bond issue was defeated.
The War Chest of Greater Cleveland, with a goal of $75,000,000, is scheduled for October 16 to 20. It is dedicated to the purposes of welfare, health, and service agencies of the Community Fund, and Greater Cleveland's share of the goal is for the $75,000. The War Chest of National War Council, administered by the American Field Service, is scheduled for the same time.

Music Department Plans Busy Season
According to Miss Esther Keller, the singing groups have scheduled a semester of musical entertainment for Rhodes.
To commemorate V-Day of World War I, they are preparing an Armistice Day program which is to be presented by the Girls' Glee Club and the A Capella Club under the guidance of Miss Keller, and the Boys' Glee Club directed by Mr. Raymond Gerken.
The season will be handled by the choirs' two male soloists, James Hilt, tenor, and Alan Bruce, baritone. The program will take place on December 12.

New Cheers Will Make Debut at Rally
Rhodes began its 1944 football season with five cheerleaders, headed by Gena Kansky. Gayle Trecik, Don Kanz, Jimmy Gaskin, and Herbert Butler are the others.
Gena is planning two cheers which will have their debut at the next rally. According to Gena they are to be done with a little cooperation from the student body, they should work out quite well.

Rhodians in Action

The Rod Cross recently reported that Lieutenant John W. Johnson, of the Rhodesian Police Force, had been recently killed in action during one of the most recent of the frequent raids by the bush war bands. He had been a distinguished member of the Rhodesian Police Force, and his death is a great loss to the Rhodesian people.

Impatient Diner: "Hey, waiter, how's the soup?"

Waiter: "All right, sir, but we'll have to send out for it."

Famous last words

"Take off your coat."

"You mean you're really going?"

"Pepito... I could drink buckets of it."

"Hey, Pop, you're sure you're going?"

"Look! It's a torpedo."

"I'll muddy the water."

"Don't drive on this road with your eyes shut."

"Out of gas? I'll hitch a ride with you."

South Dampens Rams' Hope for Undefeated Season, Win 13-12

Catching the Rams off-balance with a surprising running and passing attack, the South High Flyers lived up to their name as the "Psychopaths" of the West side by digging the Rams by the horns and throwing them from the top of the West Side lap in a Senate contest at John Adams Field last Friday, October 6.

History never seems to favor the Rams on the West Side, the South High Flyers have had a perfect record of victory over the mighty Black and White.

Just the week before, the Rhodex played on the well-trodden offensives of the South Side, Jack Seusswell, on a reserve, hauled the ball for 40 yards and a touchdown, but the wind spoiled the attempt for the conversion.

South tied immediately.

Reserves Enter Junior League

Our team-to-be-squat, the Reserve team, under the watchful eye of Coach T. Roberts, has won the newly-formed Junior Varsity League, a six-team division of the Senate.

The purpose of the league is to provide competition for the schools in the middle of the season, and to give the Reserve team the chance to realize all the potential of the team.

At the present time a schedule of six games is being played by the Reserve team. The Reserve team is unable to meet John Day.

These players have yet to face the boys of the higher class, but all the teams are expected to be in the Reserves.

Everyone named the annual Reserve football game last season. Both the Rams and the Kidnappers had an open date October 14. Parma has never beaten the Black and White since Coach Vanczakowski's reign, and at the present time boasts an eleven-game winning streak. A game between the two would be quite a clash.

SOUTH DAMPENS RAMS' HOPE FOR UNDEFEATED SEASON, WIN 13-12

December 17, 1937

Rhodes, Holy Name scores to date:

Year 1937 1938 1939 1940 1941 1942

Score 18 18 12 6 6 7

Lincoln, coming out on the long end of their encounter with West with one of the closest margins, and walloping West Tech, the Rams have shown plenty of offensive punch.

Though averaging 155 pounds, the Holy Name line is lacking in experience. Here Ross, center, plus two strong ends are the only experienced Plums. The backfield, composed of Hals, Edgerton, and Staub, is both experienced and capable, combining speed, passing, and lot control.

Some green teams, however, have been known to develop into a threatening opponent under the guidance of Coach Joe Ginaz. Ginaz, a dynamic, inspiring coach, has tutored Holy Name to the top of the football heap in the last few years.

In the Lincoln game Coach Ginaz, powered by a red decision, shouted the column past the end line, followed up and down the striped line, turned his players by yelling to them, and made the run for the winning touch down.

ART CLASSES

Offer Variety
This year the Art Department, with an increase of about 30 students, is offering more classes in the arts and crafts for the girls in the art field.

Jewelry class is making rings, bracelets, and other metal articles. This advanced class is working on pastel portraits, later to be painted from a picture with a halftone. Several classes are working on ceramics.

Miss Adams' sign printing class made the various signs for the football games this year.

In other art classes pastel, water color and life drawing is being emphasized as well as the showing of slides. The project is planning for the home of the future.
