Covering Clubs

All those people who scored superlatives in last week's 12.5-hour computer game, "Let's Go to the Ball," have more to look forward to this week. "Let's Go to the Ball" was a great success, but only for one game. The next term of the game starts on Friday, and it promises to be even more exciting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spiegel and George Spiegel, Jr., who are the owners of the Western Grocery in Columbus, have just announced the birth of their new daughter. The little girl, who was born at 4:15 a.m. on Monday, weighs 7 pounds, 10 ounces. She is a girl, which is the first girl in the family of five. The parents are all very proud of their new addition to the family.

The first term—1932.

The third term—1940.

The fourth term—1942.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spiegel and George Spiegel, Jr., have just received a letter from the President of the Western Grocery, expressing his congratulations on the birth of their daughter. He said he was looking forward to visiting the new baby and hoped to see her soon.

He also mentioned that he had heard some interesting stories about the baby's birth and that she seemed to be healthy and happy. He added that he was looking forward to seeing her grow up and become a part of the Western Grocery family.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiegel were both very pleased with the letter and felt that it was a good sign of things to come. They were excited about the future and hoped that the baby would be happy and healthy.

The Spiegels said that they were already thinking about the future and had already started planning for the baby's education. They were looking forward to seeing the baby grow up and become a part of the Western Grocery family.

At this point, the story ended, and there was a brief pause. The audience clapped and the parents of the baby were all very proud of their new addition to the family.

Inducted Into National Honor Society

On this day, the National Honor Society in Columbus, Ohio, held its annual induction ceremony. The ceremony is held every year to induct new members into the society, who are chosen based on their academic achievement and community involvement.

This year, 12 people were inducted into the society, including students from Columbus High School, Franklin High School, and Ohio State University. The inductees were presented with their certificates and were congratulated by their teachers and peers.

The ceremony was followed by a reception where the inductees and their families were able to celebrate together.

Hornby Blowing Rhodesways

The issue of Rhodesways has raised concerns about the government's policies on Rhodes scholarships. The Rhodes scholarships are intended to select the best students from across the world and provide them with a chance to study at Oxford University.

However, some critics argue that the selection process is biased and that students from certain countries are at a disadvantage. They believe that the government should take steps to ensure that the selection process is fair and that students from all backgrounds have an equal chance to compete.

Despite these concerns, the government remains committed to the Rhodes scholarships and continues to select students based on their academic achievement and potential.

Injuries Again

Bad luck and that word "if" are again playing a big role in Rhodes athletics. Last fall football suffered, now it's track and field.

With the Westby Relays coming up this Saturday, Coach Sistek is worried. Will Sistek's leg he had after the muscle injury incurred during the Parma meet recover in time for the Westby Relays? The condition of George Schillen whose knee has knocked him off par, and the foot injuries on the Rhodos Upperclassmen will cause the absence of more anchor man tank mind.

Taking into consideration all of lady (bad luck) lack's bag of tricks, however, Rhodes still is in position to offer stiff competition in Saturday's meet.

Previous Westby gatherings were attended by out-state schools. Due to wartime pulleys this year's relays will include only entries from schools of various Ohio regions.

To date the situation stacks up like this:

Tough two-mile team-Gates Banks, Chuck Havas, and Missig. Very tough shuttle team—Sishek Schillen, Rocky Banks, and Bell. 880-yard—uncertain.

Rugged medley team—Missig, Havash, Bickel, and Schillen. Tough mile team—Schillen, Bickel, Bell, and Missig. Field events— uncertain, but will include Bell, Bickel, Towarek, Pinnock, Phillips, Roder, and Rahner.

The West Tech relays, slated for May 15, should see the Rhodos group in even more formidable form.

Upwards of 20 schools are entered annually at Tech, it was here that last year's Blue and White shuttles team set the best time in the state and broke a beautiful mile on the track find afterwards that the foot was broken. Bob is now in charge of equipment to the recovery of the former, and former half-mile men, Wally Casey, home from boot camp for short chit-chat, with the boys.

Aiming to equal last year's record, a group of twenty reported to Carlston Hicks two weeks ago for the first practice of the All-Rhodos Class E baseball team.

Last year the team finished as runners-up in its division.

Practice was held at Broadview Park, and consisted of batting drills and a five inning intra-squad game which ended in a 1-1 tie. The team at the close of practice decided to enter Class E backed or unbacked.
