Rhodes Enters Class AA in Band Competition Festival

In the Senior Band Competition Festival at John Hay High School Auditorium on May 4, Rhodes received a division two rating along with East High, Grinnell, and Griswold.

Four years ago, in 1940, the Greater Cleveland Junior Band Directors' Association invited eight high schools to participate in their contest. The contest was modeled after the Band competition of the National Junior Band Directors' Association. Six of the eight schools who participated in that initial contest will be participating in a division according to its ability to participate. Division one ratings are given to Cleveland Heights, the best school band in the United States, John Adams, and Shaw.

Under the direction of Mr. Germano, the band played selections from ‘“Holland Hop” held for 12A’s.”

A setting of a Windmill and Tulips surrounded by a white picket fence, and carried out the Dutch theme of the “Holland Hop” at the afternoon in formal given by the 12B class last Wednesday for the graduating seniors.

Music for the dance was furnished by the records. The dances included ‘“Swing Time’ by the Wooden Shoe, ’“Waltz by Moonlight’ by the Karatski Ship, Tulip Trot, Windmill Wabble, and Cabot Boast” by the cornet which carried out the theme of tulip time.

Different colored streamers decorated the gymnasium, and decorations of paper wooden shoes adorned the walls.

Booklets of different colors in the shape of tulips were given out as memorandums.

Potato chips, pretzels and pop were served.

The social committee consisted of Henry Stickney, Betty Kalluban, Don Estato, Elsie Phillips, Alice Chappell, and Chuck Hackx.

“Never Again” says Owner As Car Burns

How many times have Rhodesians voiced their wishes to own a car in their last year of school? Maybe Joe Gideon, 11A of 303, was abnormally in this desire. But to start from the beginning...

Don is the proud owner of a 1929 Ford. He was proud of it, surely. For one spring morning in the morning he decided to repair a hole in the side of his car. He got those ‘‘nifty’’ necessary tools (namely a welding torch from Mr. Berrill), he sat down to work. It could have been a case of danger, or maybe the fog that came to him to notice that, amid his endearments, the upholstery was going up in flames. Means, Yoram and Rath, custodians, obliged by putting out the fire before more than $80 damages could be done.

No one knows what Don means when he says: ‘‘I’ll never do it again.’’ Could he mean ‘‘never’’ let the car run again, or perhaps it’s that he’ll be more careful when playing with fire.

Choir Practices for Music Contest at John Hay, May 11

The Rhodes Choir has been practicing hard for the Senior High choir Club contest to be held May 11, at John Hay High School, Bedford, South, John Hay, Maple Heights, and Lincoln High Schools will participate starting at 2:30 in the afternoon, and Cuyahoga County. John Hay, Griswold, Technical, Girard, Berea, West, John Hay, Bedford, East, and John Adams High Schools will make their appearances in the evening starting at 6:15. Jess, Our Lord, We Adore Thee, by James, is the required selection that the choir must sing and Hallelujah from ‘The Music of Angels,’ by Haywood, is their choice for another number.

The contest judges are Dale Gilliam, representative of the State Department of Education, and Oar Jones, from Findlay, Ohio; and Haydn Morgan, from Michigan State Teachers College.

Ideal Senior In Yearbook

George E. Seedhouse, the boys physical education instructor, is the 12A class chairman, chosen by a majority of the class.

The yearbook committee is headed by Bill Finn. He is assisted by Jean Rose, Ruth Wilson, Eugene Karzky, Norman Marshman, and Joan Karan.

The yearbook will have the usual class prophy, class will, and history. Ideal senior will also be included as a new addition. Pictures of the faculty, National Honor Society, Boys’ and Girls’ League, and class officers will be included. The yearbook will also be included. The book will cover all the facts of the school and will have a blue cover with white lettering.

The traditional white caps and gowns will be worn by the seniors. Boys will be wearing cap and gown in graduation. The Class colors are red and white and the flowers will be red and white carnations.

Drama Class Presents First Play Since ‘41

Instead of the fast-stopping musical entertainment packed extravaganzas that have thrilled full houses for the last few evenings when the time came for the annual musical production, the drama class, under the direction of Miss An- na, has decided to present ‘‘Never Again’’ a comedy by Clyde Fitch and充 June Nemeth will participate in this part of the program. The art department is making posters to promote the concert.

Who Will Reign As Track Queen

Is Big Question

With the district meet coming May 19, the annual question of who will win the girls division (one race is not all tracksmen) is on the lips of many Rhodesians.

It is just a matter of time before Miss Thompson before this Friday, should have one hundred signatures as track managers for the event quarter mile and half mile will be in charge of publicity and ticket sales for their candidates, and the boos, who manage will be in charge of their own ticket sale.

Writers To Publish Supplement Soon

With the weather, work will publish a six-page supplement to the REDEO REVIEW sometime in late May of the ’45 edition. A 12A, in charge of editing the publication.

The merchandise committee consists of James Bunch, Joel Gaul, Ralph Harrison, Rose Henningham, Norval Lee Jezdel, Bruce Koon, Newton Lesher, Francis Moran, Vera Parrish, Jean Prise, Joan Schuster, Ursula Rhoder, Ralph Roberts, James Ryan, Marjorie Say, and Ethel Doppitz.

First Nighters Await Opening of Swank ‘‘Club 45’’

Imagine Rhodes gym becoming Club 45, with a real bar (and pop only), Masors, Tanks, Hocks, and Seedhouse bartenders, and the Cocktail Shake the swank, and the lingo, which will also be Saturday night.

Due to the ingenuity and hard work of the seniors, ideas in years will turn Rhodes into a gay night spot. It will be a good place to entertain friends and other club will be able to boast of such a gals opening.

For only $2.50 you will be greeted by a doorman, one of the initiates of the Boys’ Lodgers Club. Covering the doors in the student center of the gym will be a canopy with two cool lights at the bottom. There will be no overhead lights, except for a revolving color light on the ceiling with green and white crescent paper streamers radiating from it. Green will be wall paper with black silhouettes of top hat and cane will cover the walls, while a huge sign will hang over the bar at the east end of the gym labeled, ‘‘Cocktail Shakers’.’’

Steve Pindor will provide the music, the dances being named after famous night clubs from coast to coast. The band stand will be in the northeast corner in the shape of a fourteen c

Girls Get Mirrors

For those pupils who have eagerly looked forward to the day when their own ‘‘Birds of Paradise’’ on the walls, we have good news. On April 29, a group of the Rhodes P.T. A. presented the school with a check for one hundred dollars to be used for such a purpose. It is hoped that the male population will be able to enjoy such a gift in their washroom also.

The construction job is being done by the Peterson Co.

Along the north side of the gym, and the back drop of stage will stand the rods where banquets, cookies will be served.

Eugene Morgan will be in charge of the entertainment during intermission which will feature the Jive Boppers, Jim Strong impersonating Ted Lewis, Ed Freshwater, and Gordon Simon in an Adega dance, and Louis Nelson singing ‘‘Sentimental Journey’’.

Paper Drive Ends June 3

The county-wide victory paper campaign which started on April 3, has to date a little over one and a half tons of paper collected. The band will be held in charge of one-day county-wide curl collection on June 2. The committee is now forming to start the collection, and as well as several thousand high school students to be in charge of this collection.

P.T.A. Ends Year With Music Program

The Parent-Teachers Association of Rhodes will complete the year with a musical program under the direction of Mr. Germano. The program will also be the first program directed by Mr. Germano. The school will be given first place in the contest.

Paper will be collected at the elementary schools in this district.

The drive will be eliminated on the realization that there will be no waste paper collected. The newly elected officers will be installed by Mrs. R. P. Kincaid, Secretary of Cleveland P.T.A., and as also be a display by the Home Economics Department of clothing made in the classes.
