United Appeal Campaign
Soars to New Heights

By MONICA MELUCH

"Up, up and away in a beautiful balloon," will be the chant of homeowners, with the start of the 1966 United Appeal Drive.

"Around the World in Eight Days," is the theme of the drive, Balloons marking the progress of each grade level as they attempt to complete their world in eight days.

The BALLOONS will become airborne Monday, October 14, according to Miss Maris Lanese, Home Economics Department head.

Thursday's assembly featured speakers 12A Joseph Simonee and 11A Elaine Wegener, and musical entertainment by the Boys Octet, and the Triplet Trum. Assuming the role of pep drivers behind the scenes are 12B Rob Rooster; 12B, Doug Hornicky; and 11B, Paul Zales.

The minimum goal this year is $1,200 for our school," commented Miss Lanese. A minimum of one dollar per student is the requirement of the goal to be reached.

A RECORD BREAKING nation-wide goal of $17,000,000 exceeds last year's campaign result by $900,000. With the addition five new agencies, it is more important than ever to reach this year's goal.

According to a bulletin put out by the Red Cross and Red Feather Agencies, 445 families out of every hundred in the Rhodes area received services from United Appeal.

Last year's collection at Rhodes totaled $2,145.32. Top homeowners were four 12B homeowners. In the lead spot with 650 per cent was 12B girls Mrs. Sannerell; followed by Mr. Moran's 12B boys, 479 per cent; Mr. Ehlers' 16A boys, 323 per cent; and Miss Glitzen's 12B girls with 300 per cent.

Benefiting by last year's UA drive from the Rhodes area were 2,631 people enrolled in Red Cross water safety classes; 94 people received technical service at Nationalities Service Center; 23 children were served in a children's home; and a variety of other benefits totaling over 6,685 services in this district.

The All-American Honor "Rhodes Review" for the fifth consecutive years. Rated were the Spring Scholastic Press Association. A total of 1200 papers rated were the in the category as the "Review." Eleven of these received All American ratings.

Of 415 points possible, the "Rhodes Review" attained 409, only 9 points short of a perfect score. To be an All-American newspaper in the "Review's" category, a total score of 2800 had to be reached.

Science Costs Raised By $500

By Kathy McWilliams

While the cost of living is going up, the cost of operating science labs here has increased too. According to Science Department Head, Mr. Clyde Henderson, the science budget has increased by about $500 over the past three years. The present budget is approximately $2400 for the year.

The first marking period ends Friday, October 18. Report cards will be issued the following Tuesday, October 22.

N.E.O.T.A.

N.E.O.T.A. will give students a day off on Friday, November 1.

Money allotted to the Rhodes Science Department is used to purchase chemicals and laboratory equipment. Office supplies for micrographing laboratory and supply laboratories are also needed. The cost of operating the different labs varies.

MORE MONEY WAS originally intended for equipment for the Physics lab," explains Mr. Henderson, "but the continual use of chemistry students in the physical classes above that of the chemistry classes.

Funds from the sales of the science classes at Rhodes come from the Cleveland Board of Education and the Federal Government.

"Fall Happening" is here. This is the theme of this year's Homecoming to be held Saturday, October 19. The City Squares will play for the dance room from 8 to 11 p.m.

Cost of tickets will be $2.25 per couple and will be on sale in home room starting October 7. COES and tent cards." confirmed Doug Hornicky, President of the Student Council. Girls will be dressed in semiformal and no courtesies will be allowed.

The ANNOUNCEMENT of the queen and her court will take place during halftime of the Homecoming game with Marshall at 2:00 p.m. on the Rhodes field. Oct. 19. The Homecoming candidates are Marsha Fees, Melanie Cline, Pam Greame, Beth Minch, Becky Nagost, Claudia Myers, Debbie Radish and Terri Stackhouse. They will be escorted by members of the Letterman's Club and the Cross Country team.

We are expecting a large turnout and one thing that is going to be different is the decorations. We want to go all out for that," stated Hornicky. According to Miss Sonja Sanza, Student Council advisor, all plans for the Homecoming are being taken care of by the Student Council.

Wallace Wins Review Poll

Governor George Wallace was the victor with 527 votes according to the "Rhodes Review" Presidential Poll taken on Thursday, October 3.

Samantha Knoles was second with Richard Nixon with 480 votes. Hubert Humphrey who had 172 votes came in third place. Approximately 1270 students of Rhodes' total enrollment voted. There were 82 students absent. The rest of the students either wrote in candidates or they did not vote at all.

Would you believe that the executive producer and host of two television shows works at his other job in the office of Rhodes? Mr. Mike Mann, better known to most Rhodesians as an assistant principal, produces and hosts "High School Football" at ten o'clock Friday nights, and "Varsity Club" at eight o'clock Wednesday evenings, both on WVIZ, channel 25.

He and Mr. Brian Powers, a teacher at John Marshall, host "High School Football," an hour of commentary and delayed video tapes of local high school football games.

Rhodes fans can see the Rams in action Friday, November 1, on "High School Football".

Give: But Why?

Greedy Gary: Money, Money, Money!!!
That's all they ever want. But, if you don't give something, I'm going to get something: a detention from my home-room teacher.

Showy Sam: Well, I don't know about you, but I made sure my home-room teacher wrote down my name and the amount I gave. Remember how they had the names and amounts in the center hall last year? This year we might even get a party from our home-room teacher.

Generous John: I've sure got a winner of a homeroom. They all agreed with the teacher not to put names on our donations. We give what we want to and if you don't give, to one really knows. But our homeroom is over our quota already, even I gave. You know, that's the way it should be!

Examples like Rhodians, Are you a Greedy Gary, a Showy Sam, or a Generous John? Give to the United Appeal?

Jog For Fitness

It's time to separate the men from the boys as a newly-planned physical fitness program for faculty members, started September 24.

The program features a display of grace and finesse in jogging-speed sprint, pushups and other impressive activities.

Perhaps this program, designed with the pride of the older generation in mind, was developed as an excuse to get the teachers into shape for chasing those boys, in their futile attempts at trying to escape swats, around the building. This may become an invaluable aid to the "energetic instructors" who wish to avenge the evil-doers.

It looks as if our boys are really being threatened now, as in the past when the "faculty fantasies" gathered together to form a rival basketball team. Could this be the dramatic climax to the enthusiastic endeavors or just the beginnings? Will the faculty prove its point? Can they outdo our "tireless tracksters"?

Students Sound Off

Lights, Loudmouths, Lockers Puzzle Rhodians

Dear Editor,

Why aren't we allowed to have lights and night games here?

Jackie Loehr, 10A

Dear Jackie, it is not a question of not being allowed, only a question of cost, need, and other facilities. The lights needed for night games cost a great deal of money. Rhodes also lacks sufficient parking space to accommodate the large attendance of a football game. We have a good field and it is excellent for afternoon games. We should be thankful for this. Other schools have no fields at all.

Mr. Michael Massa Assistant Principal

Dear Editor,

I would like to complain about the parents conduct at football games. Many parents come to cheer our Rams to victory and this is good, but many of the adult fans get excited and begin to use foul language. These too are equally loud. This sort of shouting is bad enough but there are even some parents who bring alcoholic beverages to the games and become intoxicated with them. Can't something be done about this?

Paula Maximik, 10A

Dear Paula,

We have talked to a number of people and we hope these problems will not arise during future games. Something everyone can do when good sportsmanship is not being shown is, (1) Call the person's attention to his behavior. (2) Ask him to use good sportsmanship. Everyone at any game should remember that he is representing a school and any behavior, especially poor, reflects on the school's reputation.

Mr. Michael Massa Assistant Principal

Dear Editor,

All the students attending Rhodes High School have agreed that they are an asset to the school. However, we also feel that the tradition of Rhodes High School should be maintained, that is the priority of the upperclassmen should be considered first. The juniors should not be made to share lockers when the underclassmen do not.

Mary Panamarenko, 11B

Dear Mary,

We realize that sharing a locker is inconvenient, and we wish that no Rhodian had to do it. However, the sophomores have enough to cope with coming in a new school and since it is the seniors' last year, the juniors are asked to share lockers. We feel you are capable and mature enough to handle any problems that may arise.

10 Majorettes

Twirl in Time at Grid Games

By MARY CHARYAT

Twirling and struttiing in time with the Rhodes Marching Band, led by 12B drum major Jins Livestrong, the 10 majorettes stir up the blue and white souls of roaming Rhodians at football games.

The majorettes remain active throughout the school year, says Mr. Michael Zand, Director of Instrumental Music at Rhodes. "They will also be featured with the band at other activities, such as the Memorial Day Parade."

Head majorette, Gayle Novak, 12B, is joined by a veteran crew of Jean Hoksin, 12A; Debbie Miller, 12B; Judy Kowatch, 12B; and Jeanne Stein, 12B.

New members are Sandy Park, 11B, Jeanne Kola, 10A, Sherry Callahan, 10B, Sue Kempert, 10B, and Aileen Petrich, 10B, all of whom demonstrated their ability to twirl, march, and present a prepared routine at last spring's tryouts.

Also new are the uniforms, the white skirts having a gold satin lining showing up at the majorettes' knees of their heels, and the royal blue flags which are new used during the playing of the Alma Mater.

Routines, according to Jean Hoksin, are a product of a coordinated effort in ideas and suggestions on the part of all the majorettes.

RAM MAJORETTES: Kneeling are Debbie Miller, Aileen Petrich, Jean Kempert, Sandy Park. Standing are Sherry Callahan, Jeanne Kola, Judy Kowatch, Gayle Novak, Jean Hoksin, Jeanne Stein.

To Keep in Shape

By BILL SPERRY

Who says television does not influence young America? For Ron Chapelle, 12B, upon seeing an event on TV changed the course of his life. Ron was watching a go-cart race when he decided it looked interesting and decided to try it. So far, Ron has been racing three years and has won 21 trophies. He was also champion of Brevard this year. Ron races mainly in Mansfield and Nelson Ledges.

"My mother and sister know it is a very dangerous sport but they doapprove," states Ron. At MANSFIELD LAST YEAR, Ron proved just how dangerous this sport is. During the middle of a race last year at Mansfield, Ron went into a bad skid and flipped over. He was immediately rushed to the hospital and treated for the broken arm he suffered. Ron's injury could have been much worse if it was not for the protective helmet and leather jacket he was required to wear. Ron reached speeds up to 100 m.p.h. on his cart.

"I enjoy the sport very much, and would like to continue it for the rest of my life," adds Ron.

RON CHAPPEL displays some of his trophies he won in go-cart competition.

Ehlert's Boys Lead Rams Ticket Sales

With a sales average of seven tickets per person, Mr. Tom Ehlert's 11A boys home room, 132, led the school in this year's "One For The Rams" ticket drive. This is the third straight year Mr. Ehlert's home room has sold more tickets than any other home room in the school.

A total of $216.75 was collected this year. Profits from the ticket sales go into the school's athletic fund. All first place home rooms received $25, second place, $20, and third place, $15.

Mr. Allan Pinter, 214, and Mr. Norman Lehman, 198, had second and third places, respectively, in the 7th grade.

In the 10th grade, first place went to home room 301, Mr. Mark Laderer. Second place went to home room 116, Mr. Richard Despio. Home room 209, Mr. Jim Zich, had third place.

In the 10th grade only one first and second prices were given since third price requirements were not fulfilled. First place went to Mr. Robert Seave, 4th Building, and second to Miss Carolyn Flod, Librarian.

Frosh Seek Perfect Year

An undefeated record will be at stake when the Rams' frosh team clashes with A. B. Hart and Carl R. Schuler, on the 15th and 22nd of October. The Rams have an unblemished 3-0-1 record. The Froshmen overcame a shaky first quarter to defeat Lincoln 14-0.

"We took charges," said Coach Allen Pinner. At the helm of the charge was quarterback Bruce Boyko who ran for one touchdown and passed for the extra points to Ralph Gistaholm. Richard Laich was responsible for the other tally with a touchdown run.

With this victory the Froshmen remained undefeated. In an earlier game against West Tech, the frosh tied at six points a piece.

Rams Beat Tech, Play South Tonite

By MIKE MAYO

South is the biggest school in the Senate, states head grid coach, Mr. Jim Tempkin. "Therefore, they should have the biggest football team. And they do. South is an awfully powerful team."

There were the comments made by coach Tempkin in regards to tonights' clash between Rhodes and South at West Tech Field at 7:30. AFTER LOSING THREE straight, the Rams came through on Oct. 4 and end their losing streak making West Tech their first victims 6-0.

The game was tied at 7-7 until the third quarter. It was Tech s ball in the Rams 20-yard line, when blasting linebacker Nate Santamaria nabbed the runner, made him fumble, and recovered the ball.

THE RAMS OFFENSIVE unit with Ron Buchwald at the helm, then marched 72 yards in 16 plays, piling up three first downs in the drive. West Tech in the way of three first downs during the entire game. The drive was capped by a 26-yard scoring pass to end Bob Mazakoway on a fourth down play.

On September 27, the Rams tasted the bitterness of defeat by being outscored by Holy Name, 32-12.

J.V.'s Hope For Win

BY GEORGE SPERANZEL

Another Ram victory is the hopeful conclusion of the Tuesday, October 15, junior varsity football game at 4 p.m. between Rhodes and Lincoln at Tremont Field.

In their first victory of the season on September 17, the junior Rams, coached by Mark Lasek, downed Holy Name 22-12. Quarterback Frank Zema joined the first two touchdowns along with a two point conversion.

The THIRD TOUCHDOWN included a block of a Holy Name punt by Zema with recovery and score by Norm Phillips. The two point conversion was good on a pass to Jim Kasner.

But the Rams came back on October 1, and edged South 14-21. To make their record 2-2 after seven minutes, the Rams scored on a pass to Bindi Bross who ran 30 yards for South Point.

The SECOND TOUCHDOWN was on a pass in which Zema intended for Jim Vidor who passed to Phillips who stepped into the end zone for the score. The final Ram score in the game was a two point conversion run by Kasner.

At press time, the results of the Oct. 19, John Marshall game was not available.

Pompeani is New Wrestling Coach

By MIKE MAYO

When a varsity wrestler falls "key coach," a new face will be seen.

Mr. Alfred Pompeani, a physical education teacher at Rhodes and Junior Varsity wrestling coach last year will be replacing Mr. Tom Effert, who is now the defensive football coach.

"Catching practice will start November 1, but the wrestling room was in shape October 2, and weight lifting started this week," says Coach Pompeani.

MR. J. J. STILLINGER, principal of Rhodes believes Mr. Pompeani worked hard and diligently last year and replaces a very enthusiastic coach, Mr. Effert.

"Mr. Pompeani is a fine teacher, therefore he will be a fine coach. He will make the boys believe in themselves which is important to every team," states Mr. Stillinger.

HARRIERS TRAVEL TO BOWLING GREEN

By BILL SPERRY

When the Harrisers journey to Bowling Green tomorrow it will be a preview of the District on October 19. The seven varsity runners who will journey to Bowling Green will be tested in this meet for the All Important District.

This afternoon the Harrisers on October 2 by the score of 22-25. distance Arc Kent Newman finished first with a time of 19:29. Rich Kuziem finished fifth for Rhodes followed by Bill Lupone, Tom Kusz, Dave Rovecky, Terry Davison, and Dave Sinko.

"We still have a pretty good chance in the District if the runners continue to perform as they have so far," states coach Steve Turetsky.

By MIKE MAYO

"Ron you'll never play football after the way you kicked up your nose." These were the words the doctor said to Ron Amrich last year after the South game, possibly cutting short an outstanding high school athletic career. Ron was talked the most valuable defensive J.V. when he played in the 1965 season under Tom Effert. Last year he scored the last points Rhodes will ever score against Parma High School on a 20 yard touchdown pass. Parma is out of the Ram schedule anymore.

HIS INJURY did not stop this fighting Rhodian. He offered his services as freshman coach and was accepted with great enthusiasm by Mr. A. B. Pinter, freshman head coach.

Jeff Kotslyn, another senior who played J.V. ball, has also been injured but now and now also helps coach the Charles A. Moore team. "I couldn't play football and I really wanted to help the Rhodes athletic program in any way I could," says Kotslyn. He and Amrich do their share.

Mr. PINTER says that Ron and Jeff have helped out every night.

When asked if he has anything to do with the respect bestowed in the two coaches, Mr. Pinter said that Ron and Jeff are called coach Amrich and Kotslyn and many players think they are in college.

"These boys deserve a lot of credit," says Mr. Pinter.
